Community Programmes
424 Legislative Building
Edmonton, Alberta.

Final date for receipt of completed application forms—March 1, 1963.

will be the theme speaker. Mr. Wright former director of Physical Education, Department of Education, Province of Ontario—national President of CAPHER—has had extensive experience at all levels of athletics.

Delegates to the workshop must be sponsored by the local recreation Board or the town council where no Board exists. They will be expected to report the results of the meeting to the local community.

Final registration date has been set at March 4 and all inquiries should be forwarded to Mr. Jack Riddel, Acting Supervisor, Community Programmes, 424 Legislative Building, Edmonton, Alberta.

LIBRARIES GRANTS REMINDER

Custodians of all public libraries are again reminded that applications for provincial government grants must be received on or before January 31, 1963. No applications may be considered after this date.

Library Board secretaries are asked to give immediate attention to this matter and also the annual returns required by the Supervisor of Public Libraries. It would be appreciated if the latter could be sent along with the grant application forms.

nection with the registration of this course.

NOTE—In all cases, insufficient registration and representation will result in a course cancellation.

In this event, registration fees of those who have registered will be returned.

DRAMA WORKSHOPS CONTINUE DURING FEBRUARY

The Drama Division's training programme continues in high gear this month with a drama workshop on Speech and Make-up scheduled for Grande Prairie the weekend of January 18.

The following weekend the Drama Division will sponsor a workshop for the R.C.A.F. Station in Cold Lake, with courses being given in basic acting, make-up and directing. Gordon Peacock, Gerard Baril and Jack McCreath will head this workshop.

The weekend of February 1, the Drama Division heads for Lethbridge. The courses in basic directing and stage craft will be conducted by Mr. McCreath and Frank Beuckert, and the weekend of February 22 will see a drama workshop being conducted for the first time at Jasper.

Applications for all of these workshops may be obtained through the Drama Supervisor, Drama Division, Room 424, Legislative Building, Edmonton, Alberta.

Grande Prairie To Hold Third "Festival of the Peace"

The Third Annual Drama Festival of the Peace will be held in Grande Prairie on Friday and Saturday, February 15 and 16.

This Festival, which was initiated by the Drama Division three years ago, will be co-sponsored by the Drama Division of the Recreation and Cultural Development Branch and the Allied Arts Council of Grande Prairie.

Drama is reported to be in a very healthy state in the northern areas and several entries for the Festival are expected from Grande Prairie, Beaverlodge, High Prairie, Valleyview and Dawson Creek.

Adjudicator for the Festival will be announced later.

Any organizations desiring to enter are asked to contact the Drama Supervisor immediately.
